

August 2006 Pale Letter
Greetings!

There are some staff changes in the Middle Kingdom College of Heraldry. It is my pleasure to announce that His Grace, Duke Dag Thorgrimsson has been selected as the new Midrealm Minister of Protocol. Lady Akiko Catherine O'Brien has been chosen as the new Lincoln Signet for the Midland Region. Finally, Baroness Alexandra dei Campagnella has been appointed Shield Herald and will be handling special projects for the College.

Pennsic is finally here. This year, the Middle Kingdom will be accepting name and armory submissions at Pennsic. However, it will cost a couple of extra dollars if you submit at Pennsic. Please note that Pennsic submissions do not go through the system faster than a normal submission sent to the Escutcheon Herald. In fact, it could take a couple of extra months compared to a submission sent in August. But the convenience is available if you wish.

Volunteers are always needed at Herald's Point. I would encourage all Midrealm Heraldry and Pursuivants to stop by and offer one shift of service. If you are a herald, this is a great place to meet some of the senior heralds from across the Known World, and learn consultation from the best. If book heraldry is not your cup of tea, but you still wish to help, the Point also needs Artists to draw the submissions, Greeters to help keep the lines moving, and people to help color the submissions in the evening. No knowledge of heraldry is necessary for these tasks. If you are a field herald, see the Town Criers over at Information Point. They are always looking for good voices that would like a tour of the Pennsic grounds.

In Service I Remain,

Thorvald
