

Greetings All,

Effective December 1, there is a new Escutcheon Herald. She is Lady Fiona ni Chiardubhain. Please start sending all heraldic submissions to her. Her address can be found in the back under the Heraldic Staff. I would like to thank Lady Ana Linch for her years of service as the outgoing Escutcheon Herald.

The end of the year means that it is time for the Domesday Reports. The reports are due by December 31. Please use the form located on the Heraldry web site, and send a copy the Dragon Herald and the appropriate Regional Herald. As usual, any herald or pursuivant that does not report will not be rewarranted. So please send the reports in.

In Service I Remain,

Thorvald
Draco
