

Greetings,

The Midrealm now has new submission forms available on the Dragon Herald's page at www.midrealm.org/heraldry. Please begin using these forms immediately. Submissions sent in on the old forms will have to be returned.

If you have business for the morning court of Coronation, please contact me ahead of time to get on my court list. With the hustle and bustle of preparing for two courts in a short amount of time, I am not always easy to get a hold of on the day of event.

In Service I Remain,

Thorvald Draco
