

Greetings!

The Laurel Queen of Arms has lowered the rates for submissions to the society level, so the Midrealm will pass this savings on. Effective immediately, all submission elements will cost $7.00 instead of $8.00.

The following armory has been reblazoned by the College of Arms:

Eleanor of Pica - Vert, a magpie proper maintaining in its dexter talon a feather argent.

Giannetto Bello - Gules, on a pale nebuly endorsed argent a krummhorn sable.

Iylla Rethelsson - Azure, in bend two stalks of barley bendwise sinister embowed Or, surmounted by two hop cones conjoined in fess argent.

Trewint, Shire of - Sable, in pale a sunburst conjoined to a demi-lightning bolt issuant to base, all within a laurel wreath Or.

While the end of my tenure is still a number of months away, it is time I start seeking for successor. If you are interested in applying for the office of the Dragon Principal Herald, please send me your application by November 30th.

In Service I Remain,

Thorvald Draco
