

Youth Division of the Arts & Sciences Rules

1. All of the General Rules of Participation in the Middle Kingdom Arts and Science Faire apply, except that the entry fee is waived in lieu of the requested donation below.
2. All persons entering this division must be 12 years of age or younger.
3. To enter, the parent is requested to supply the Crown with a small gift for their child, appropriate for their interests. This gift should be inexpensive and have the child's name attached to it for Their Majesties.
4. Judging of entries will be done using the Criteria of the Middle Kingdom Arts & Sciences Faire. There will be no numerical scores given within the Youth Division.
5. If present, parents are expected to assist in the judging, though they will not judge their own child's entries.
6. At their discretion, the Crown or Their representative may choose to recognize exceptional entries.
