30th Anniversary Celebration!

Oyez! Oyez!

*Hark unto the night sky!
The Wulf is calling to his pack,
And The Lioness to her Pride
(or was that the bark of an otter?)*

*Whichever you happen to hear I pray you listen well!
This is a Call Home!*

*The Great Barony of Rivenstar is Reuniting!
Reunioning! Recalling!
And besides that...
We're having a Party –*

A Birthday Party

September 10th, 2005

Anyone who has ever called this wondrous Barony 'Home' is invited to come back and Celebrate 30 years of Marauding, Music, and Merry Mayhem. There will be ample opportunity for fighting, feasting, singing, dancing, crafting, camping and sharing of memories!

In recognition of other SCA events happening nearby that day, the Baron and Baroness invite you to join us in the evening for a post revel.

Sign Up Sheet for Party Side Dishes

To help defray the costs of food for the 30th Anniversary Party, we have decided to have everyone who is able within the barony to bring a side dish. The sign up sheet will have slots with different food categories so there won't be too much of one thing (of course I could be happy with just meat and chocolate). Gallien and Dani will have the sign up sheet at meetings and at fighter practice. You can also email them with what you would like to bring. See their contact info below.

Looking for camping tips and info to post on the web

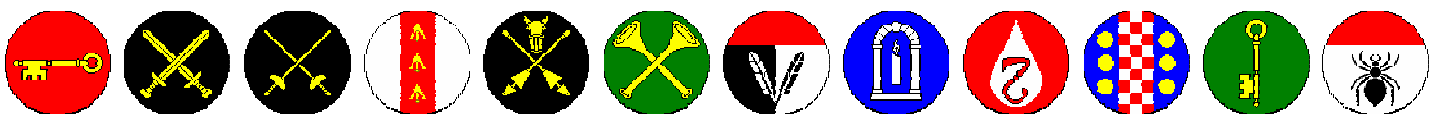

Our Web Minister, Arrantxa, is looking for camping suggestions and tips for an article for our website. Please send her stories, suggestions, and tips for camping so that we better educate people and help keep them safe while braving the big bad wilderness.

Its never too early to start thinking about our Spring Event!

This year's animal is Three Saints and a Goat. Mediterranean/Byzantine feast...hmm yum...

See our Autocrats Francois and Katalena to volunteer!

Business Meeting Minutes

7-4-05 No Meeting Happy 4th of July!

We will have an informal Rivenstar gathering at Slayter hill to watch the fireworks!

7-11-05 Business Meeting

Event Reports: Swine and Roses ...Arnora received an AoA, Sigulf was made a companion of the Evergreen, Gabriel won the Fencing tournament and received a buckler made by Night Hawk.

ARTS & SCIENCES

- Sewing Circle is this Sunday 2 pm at Dani's house.
- A&S report is due so tell Dani what you have been working on this quarter.

ARTS MARTIAL

- The fencing loaner armor is not going to Pennsic this year.
- Rain is expected to be heavy this week, so watch the reports before going to archery or fighter practice.
- Gold Key will be at this week's fighter practice for those who need garb for Simple Day & Pennsic.

HERALDRY

- Heralds report is due so tell Janusz if you have received any awards this quarter.

PEN & QUILL

- Rocky received a donation check from the Wolcott demo and handed it in to the exchequer.
- The paper copies and the pdf of the July/August RivenSTAR newsletter are available.
- We reviewed some of the Web Minister policy changes as discussed in the Chroniclers meeting at Swine and Roses. Many groups have been using their website in place of a paper newsletter. Those groups need to have their Web Ministers warranted as Chroniclers as well. Since Rivenstar has both offices filled, these changes do not affect to us.

Other EVENTS

- Dance & garb night will be held on August 1st.
- Purdue Demos: students come back August 22nd. We will have demos at the Boiler Gold Rush, Student Activities Carnival (9/26), fighter practice official student callout, and a Monday night callout.
- Do we want to put an ad in the Exponent to announce our callouts?

7-18-05 Business Meeting

ARTS & SCIENCES

- No Sewing Circle in August. People brought in garb projects from the sewing circles to show off.
- The Madrigals will be singing at Simple day.
- Do we want to do a group A&S display for the Tippecanoe Arts federation next year? See Arrantxa for more information about participating as an artist.

ARTS MARTIAL

- Victor will be our new Knights Marshal.

PEN & QUILL

- September's newsletter issue will be geared towards newcomers to the SCA.

Other EVENTS

- Purdue Demos: the Wednesday Callout is 9/7 and the Dance and garb Monday night callout is 9/12.

7-25-05 Business Meeting

ARTS & SCIENCES

- The Madrigals will be singing for both feast and court at Simple Day.

ARTS MARTIAL

- The Armory is available this week if it rains on Wednesday.
- Many people took advantage of the gold key at last week's fighter practice and found some extra garb for Pennsic.

HERALDRY

- Since Arnora has been so busy with graduation and moving, we have decided to take the baronial court to her this Tuesday at Archery practice. See story on Page 5.

PEN & QUILL

- Dani discussed heat related health issues. Members offered suggestions for keeping cool at events.
- Giuliana will have an updated Rivenlist available soon.
- By Kingdom law, we may need to do another vote of confidence for the Baron and Baroness soon. TBA

Other EVENTS

- 30th Anniversary Updates: SR 38 construction should be done before September 10th. Invitations are done and are being mailed and emailed out. We will also hand deliver some invitations to people at Simple Day. Please encourage people to RSVP so we can accurately order food and supplies. Mistress Isabeau offered to be the Equestrian Marshal. Brianna will coordinate crash space and Gallien will be arranging food and porta privies. There is no schedule of martial activities as of yet.
- Spring Event: JP will be looking at our site again before he lets us know if we will be hosting the 2006 A&S faire.

8-1-05 Dance and Garb Night

Event Reports: Simple Day - Victor of Rivenstar joined the Red Company and Katie (Adam's wife) received an Oak for her cordial making.

ARTS & SCIENCES

- Madrigal practices resume Monday August 29th.

ARTS MARTIAL

- No fighter practice Wednesday 8-17-05. Practice will resume Wednesday 8-24-05 at the Armory at 8 pm.
- Moonwulf is finishing the ballista bolts. See him for more info if you would like to help.

PEN & QUILL

- The exchequer quarterly report is finished.
- August 8th is the deadline for submissions to the September newsletter. This issue will focus on newcomers to the SCA.

Other EVENTS

- 30th Anniversary Updates: We are looking at approximately 100-150 people in attendance, although few people have given RSVPs as of yet. Pieter has requested another workday at his house. Recent storms have created more debris that needs to be removed before we can park cars and camp on the site.
- PENNSIC: We discussed camp etiquette and heat related issues that can occur during the week. Requests were made for help setting up and tearing down the napatorium and cook tents. Takaya asked that we bring small shields with our heraldry to display at the camp site.
- Spring Event: We will NOT be hosting the Regional A&S Faire at the Spring Event. Our date falls on Easter weekend and the A&S staff did not feel it was the best weekend for an A&S event.
- Isabeau has offered to make homemade goat cheese. We need to set up a feast menu planning meeting soon so she can plan her cheese making schedule.

8-8-05 Pre Pennsic Business Meeting

EVENTS

- Purdue Demos: We have volunteers for the Black and Gold demo on campus.
- Our Wednesday callout will now be Wednesday 8-31-05
- We will have garb night on Monday 9-5-05 as a follow up from the callout and to promote the party. Monday 9-12-05 will be our dance and garb night.
- 30th Anniversary Updates: Gallien priced Midwest Party Rentals for porta castles. He also checked out Smokehouse for a hog roast. The full hog roast was over our price range, so he will be checking into D&R for precooked and prepped pulled pork BBQ, chicken, and some side dishes.
- PENNSIC: Pieter suggested an alternate route to take to Pennsic. Last minute pet/house sitting, cook group, and camping details were discussed.

8-15-05 WAR WEEK no meeting

8-22-05 Post Pennsic Business Meeting

Event Reports: PENNSIC!!!!

We did a round of Pennsic highlights for everyone before we broke into general "No sh..t, there I was..." schmoozing.

ARTS & SCIENCES

- Bring your A&S projects to display at the Wednesday night Callout. Also, if you are not fighting, wear your fancy garb!
- Madrigal practice starts up again at 7 pm next Monday in the South Tower.

ARTS MARTIAL

- Fighting practice starts this Wed at the armory at 8 pm.
- Archery is still Tuesdays at 5:30 pm on the Purdue airport sports fields.

PEN & QUILL

- Newsletter submission deadlines will be the second to last Monday meeting of each month. Issues will be made available by the last Monday meeting of the month.
- Purdue has website space available to its clubs. We could have a page for the Purdue Medieval Society that gives general info about the club and a link to the baronial website to help draw in new students.
- Our room assignments will change periodically from PMU 118 to the South Tower, so check with the website for the PMU room schedule.
- A vote of confidence in our baron and baroness is not needed at this time. Sufficient paperwork has been provided to the kingdom officers.

EVENTS

- XMAS Court: Tentative date 12-10-05 ? We hope to have the church site again this year with an afternoon of classes and displays before dinner.
- 30th Anniversary Updates: The next work day at Nan and Pieter's home is Saturday 8-27-05 starting at 9 am.
- Papa Day has offered to run a silver smithing class. Are there any other class ideas?
- The party is garb optional...wear whatever is comfy.
- The barony will cover the costs of the meat, paper products and sanitation. We will have a sign up sheet for side dishes, so that the Barony members know who is bringing what side dish.
- We may ask for donations for the meat, but there will be no site fee.
- Crash space is available, but we are encouraging people to camp on site.
- Takaya bought hand painted class medallions and suggested that we order them with blue glass painted with a rivenstar. Moonwulf brought up argument that it would look too much like the order of the Rivenstar award, so we decided to check into having text added to the medallion. We would have these at the party as 30th Anniversary mementos.
- We will have a display of past issues of the RivenSTAR Newsletter.

Rivenstar's Annual Christmas Court is coming up soon!

Our tentative date ...the date we are shooting for ...is Saturday December 10th, so keep your calendars open.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the classes and demos in the afternoon, so we are asking for teachers to volunteer a few hours to teach or demo their arts and sciences during the day. How about having another treasure/junk swap?

Baronial court will follow our traditional potluck feast. Dancing and the usual mayhem will ensue after court!

A Newbie's Quick Guide to the SCA

Welcome to the Society for Creative Anachronism!

What is the SCA?

The SCA is a group of people dedicated to the recreation of things that existed between 600AD and 1600AD. We do not reenact specific battles or try to portray real people who existed in history, rather we try to recreate elements of history such as clothing, fine arts, sciences, dance, and fighting styles.

Where do we play?

West Lafayette, Indiana is the heart of the Barony of Rivenstar. Rivenstar resides in the Constellation Region (Indiana) which resides in the Middle Kingdom (MI, IL, IN, OH & Northern KY). There are 18 different kingdoms all over the world.

What is the Medieval Society of Purdue?

This is the Purdue student organization dedicated to the academic study of medieval history. The MSP is an extension of the Barony of Rivenstar. Membership in the SCA is not required to be a part of the barony.

What do I wear?

We do our best to wear what people wore during our time period. When you hear people call things "Period", they are referring to items that are commonly seen in artwork and in books that describe history from 600AD and 1600AD. We have a Gold Key that is full of loaner garb for new people to wear until they either buy or make their own garb.

What are all the funny hats and badges?

Coronets and badges of different designs signify different ranks and orders. Each one has a different title, but when in doubt, it is always safe to address people as My Lord or My Lady.

How do I get to be the King?

Every six months a Crown Tournament is held and the best fighters and knights are invited to compete. The winner and his or her chosen consort reign as Prince and Princess for six months. They continue their reign as King and Queen for another six months.

Simon Samuel Sebastian Stout Would Not Take The Garbage Out

Written by Lady Katalena Izmaragd Ivanova

With many apologies to Shel Silverstein...

Simon Samuel Sebastian Stout
 Would not take the garbage out!
 He'd scour the pots and shovel poop,
 Sweep the floors and stir the soup,
 Though his Mother would scream and shout,
 He simply would not take the garbage out.
 And so it piled up to the ceilings:
 Celery stalks, and onion peelings,
 Orange zest, fermented mead,
 Cracked shells of sunflower seed,
 It filled the can, it covered the floor,
 It cracked the window and blocked the door
 Rolled up tacky duck tape balls,
 Heralds lists of noble calls,
 Arrow nocks, black leather lacing,
 Sweaty stinky interfacing,
 Foil wrap and chicken bones,
 Ooey gooey cherry scones,
 Crusts of honey buttered toast,
 Grisly bits of pork roll roasts...
 The garbage rolled down the hall,
 It raised the roof, it broke the wall...
 Empty bottles of sunscreen,
 Divots of grass not so green,
 Site maps, a discarded token,
 Rattan sticks battered and broken.
 Muddy sandals, rusty spur
 Clumpy crusty rabbit fur
 Stretched out plastic groc'ry bags,
 Berry juice stained kitchen rags,
 Thrusting tips and Gatorade,
 Banners of old left to fade.
 At last the garbage reached so high
 That finally it touched the sky.
 And all the peasants moved away,
 And none of his friends would come to play.
 And finally Simon Samuel Sebastian Stout said,
 "Ok, I'll take the garbage out!"
 But then, the hour drew too near...
 The garbage spread from there to here,
 From Midlands to good Pentamere.
 And there, in the garbage he did fear,
 Poor Simon shed many a tear,
 In this I am quite sincere
 Because his cries you could not hear.
 Good gentles, remember Simon Stout
 And always take the garbage out!

(Inspired by Sarah Cynthia Sylvia Stout Would Not Take The Garbage Out by Shel Silverstein)

Pennsic Shorts

Here are a few short stories of noteworthy events

Ice Cream Social

Tuesday August 16th during War Week, Rivenstar hosted an ice cream social for friends, family, and members of the barony. With a ton of ice and the cooper's famous chocolate milk, we created a new Pennsic delicacy. People appeared out of the woodwork to turn the ice cream crank and get a taste of the scrumptious desert. It was so popular, that most people totally forgot about the tasty beverages. We served over 100 people that night and succeeded in spreading the word about our 30th Anniversary Party.

If you have more Pennsic stories to share, please send them to the chronicler and they will be published in the October issue!

A Command Performance

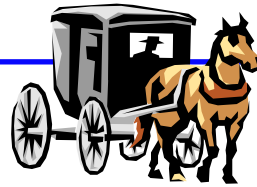

Rumors of Gabriel's Midrealm song had made its way to the royal ear, so HRM Alaric requested an audience to hear it for himself. It was almost midnight before HRM was able to attend the gathering at the Cognizeti camp, so after several hours of partying, we were quite surprised to see HRM suddenly and very quietly standing in the crowd. Gabriel was quickly shooed to the front and gave a fabulous performance. HRM Alaric seemed to enjoy the audience's response as we sang along with the chorus as if Gabriel's song was already among the Midrealm classics. Check out TRM's website for more songs about the glory and honor in the Midrealm.

<http://houseavalon.case.edu/TRM/Songs.aspx>

The Rain of Fire at Pennsic

One of the most amazing images I have from Pennsic this year is the massive siege engine volley fire coming over the castle wall. When the bright yellow ballista bolts appeared in the air, you could actually hear a gasp from everyone watching the battle. As the bolts sailed overhead, the crowd just went wild. I haven't heard mad cheering like that since I was at a high school football game. The East Kingdom fighters were dumb founded at the fact that they had to scoop up armfuls of bolts and move them from their path before they could make their way to the castle gates. For the siege engine crews, Hoobah!

All three Pennsic shorts were submitted by Kaitlyn MacLeod

Drive By Awarding

By Kaitlyn MacLeod

Some years back, Their Royal Majesties decided that territorial barons and baronesses could award an Award of Arms to members of their baronies once TRMs signed the scroll. This would help keep royal courts from going on and on and...ZZZZZZZ...

So what happens in Rivenstar when you get an award and don't show up for court, weekly meetings, or fighter practices? You get what I call a drive by awarding!

And that's what happened to Arnora Snorraddottir. Busy with silly real world stuff like graduating from college and moving into her new apartment, Arnora missed her name in the court of TRMs Alaric and Noell in their Barony of White Waters at Swine and Roses on July 9th. Our Web Minister, Arrantxa, eagerly wanted to post the announcement on our website, but did not want to ruin the surprise for Arnora. So, we decided to take the baronial court to her at the Tuesday night archery practice where we knew she could not escape.

On July 26th, one by one, the court casually showed up at archery practice. Our Baron, Baroness, Seneschal, Herald, Chronicler, and Web Minister all arrived without suspicion as we all had been to archery practice before. Behind the little storage shed on the field, we secretly switched some of the archery participants with court officers who donned their tabards and coronets. They quietly processed out behind our distracted Arnora who was actively marshalling the range.

When Janusz called Arnora to present herself to the court, everyone on the range turned with surprise and awe at the unusual display behind them. Between the rain drops of the approaching storm, we presented Arnora with her Award of Arms. She was so startled that she dropped all of her arrows on the ground. She was overjoyed with both the award and the way the Rivenstar Court had just materialized before her. Having no further business, court was ended in time for many hugs and happy smiles.

And so, the heraldry disappeared as quickly as it had appeared and everyone was returned to their regularly scheduled hot humid sticky rainy Indiana summer archery practice. Now remember, if you perform deeds of greatness and then proceed to miss court, be on the lookout for the Rivenstar Ninja Stealth Court as they may be looking for you.

For Lady Arnora, hoobah!

A Call to All Musicians and Poets!

The Staff at the RivenSTAR newsletter is looking for lyrics to songs or poems written about the Barony of Rivenstar and its members past and present.

If you have a song or poem, please consider allowing us to publish them in the upcoming RivenSTAR newsletters. We would like to publish one piece per issue.

Back to Purdue Demo Schedule

Every year, Rivenstar participates in demos on Purdue campus to find students with interests in medieval studies and who are looking for like minded individuals to inspire, to teach, to learn, to grow, to socialize, and to just have fun!

Boiler Gold Rush & Student Activities Carnival

...will be done by publication of this newsletter, but we thought they were worth mentioning so you can remember them for next year!

Medieval Society Callout - 8/31

Wed 8 pm ...at fighter practice in the Armory. Set up at 7:30 pm. Dress in garb and bring your A&S projects. We will have fighting demos, an A&S display, singing, dancing, and much more.

Garb & Event Prep Night - 9/5

Mon 8 pm ...this is Labor Day, but the Union is still open. Come and help with last minute prep for the party. Don't forget to sign up to bring a side dish!

Dance & Garb Callout - 9/12

Mon 8 pm ...we will have a special presentation for newcomers to the SCA as well as tell stories from the 30th Anniversary party.
